Large Groups/Party Requests

We get a lot of calls about reservations for large groups or private party events. We don't take reservations but we do appreciate a heads-up and will try to plan for seating unless we get so busy there are no tables available. It's always best to send someone ahead to get the table set up or get on our wait list if there is one. If it's during our dinner rush, large groups may have to split between a couple tables. For private parties, Saturday & Sunday between 2-4 pm works great for groups up to 30ish people on the patio. For these groups, we recommend ordering pizzas and appetizers or we can do a special menu. We can also accommodate larger groups during the week Tuesday-Sunday at 11 am and during dinner around 5 pm Tuesday-Thursday. If you are looking to host a large group, give us a call and we can discuss options.
