NEW—Red Pines No Reservation Policy

Effective July 1st, after much consideration and deliberation over what is fair for the majority, we have decided to no longer accept reservations.

Tables will be first come—first serve every day of the week. We continue to have situations where many of our guests drive all the way out to dine with us and have to wait while tables sit open for reservations. Most of our reservations are for large groups which are very difficult for our small kitchen and affect the wait time for everyone's food. Even though we LOVE that many people think of Red Pines for special occasions and celebrations, we have realized that we are not well suited to accommodate larger groups. If you do choose to bring a larger group, we do recommend that for faster service and shorter wait times, you consider splitting groups over 10 during dinner rush times.

We appreciate your patience and support always as we try to work out ways to make things fair for all guests and provide the best service and best quality food possible.

We also appreciate your patience and understanding that we are not a "fast food" restaurant as all our food is made to order and from scratch. A 40+ minute wait for food is not uncommon during busy nights for most restaurants.

If you are looking for a place to grab a "quick" bite during busy nights, we are probably not that place. If you are not on a time crunch and looking for a place to relax and enjoy an awesome old fashioned, maybe an appetizer before dinner, a beautiful view, and fun atmosphere, we are your place!
